COUNTRY Austric (Sewist Zone) REPORT  Military Information from Moedling, Traiskirchen and Bruck on the Leiths  River  EMALUATION PLACE OBTAINED 50X1-HUM  DATE OF CONTENT  SOCI-HUM  DATE PREPARED 18 October 1954  SOCI-HUM  SOCI-HUM  SOCI-HUM  SOCI-HUM  SOCI-HUM  SOCI-HUM  SOCI-HUM  SOCI-HUM  Traiskirchen  Soci-HUM  Traiskirchen  CON 27 September, the former Bundeseratelungsanstell at Traiskirchen was apperently vacant. 2  On 27 September, the former Bundeseratelungsanstell at Traiskirchen was apperently vacant. 2  Bruck on the Leitha River  SOXI-HUM  Leitha Soci-Borden and Society and Society Society Soxi-HUM  Soxi-HUM  SoxI-HUM  SoxI-HUM  Leitha Soci-Borden and SoxI-HUM  Leitha SoxI-HUM	MILITARY Information from Moseling, Traiskirchen and Bruck on the Leitha River  MALUATION  PLACE OBTAINED  DATE PREPARED  18 October 1954  SEFERENCES  ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)  EMARKS  SOX1-HUM  1. Between 0800 and 0900 on 18 September 1954, personnel entering the former Bundes-gewerbeanstelt at Moseling included two field grade officers wearing red-bordered had present the service of the administrative service with red-bordered present equiliers of the administrative service with red-bordered green equality, and serviced Soviets women who wore civilian clothes. All passes were controlled by a sentry fehicles observed at the installation included jeeps observed to the installation included jeeps observed were red-bordered present equipment of the septiment of the senting and trucks weapon carrier  Insubered B 3-75-81 which was driven by a soldier with black-bordered red equalets, all drivers observed were red-bordered black equalets. The former extensible and aircraft factory on Gabrielor Strasse was guarded by a sentry with red-bordered black equalets. The garges at the installation vere capty, Driver school truck which stood in front of the opened garages was being cleaned by two soldiers. Six soldiers with red-bordered black and black-bordered red epualets were seen at the Byrtl Orphanage. Sedam in front of the installation. Truck driven by a soldier wearing red-bordered black and black-bordered red, espenite were seen at the Byrtl Orphanage. Sedam in front of the installation truck which stood in front of the pened garages was being cleaned by two 50X1-HUM Traiskirchen  2. On 27 September, fresh imprints of track-laying vehicles led from the garages at the camp. A group of 16 soldiers when the new toods. All soldiers observed were red-bordered black equalets. No vehicular traffic or soldiers were seen at the search and garages was red lead to the camp. A group of 16 soldiers when fresh imprints of track-were geoma the wore red-bordered black epualets, No vehicular traffic or soldiers were seen at the camp. A	y ,	CLASSIFICATION_SECRET
RIVER  EVALUATION  PIACE OBTAINED  DATE OF CONTENT  DATE OBTAINED  DATE OF CONTENT  DATE OBTAINED  DATE OF CONTENT  DATE OBTAINED  DATE PREPARED  18 October 1954  EXPERENCES  AGES  2 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)  EMARKS  50X1-HUM  60X1-F-S-S-S-S-S-S-S-S-S-S-S-S-S-S-S-S-S-S-	River  WALUATION  ATE OF CONTENT  ATE OBTAINED  DATE PREPARED  DATE PREPARED  18 October 1954  SEPERENCES  EFFERENCES  ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)  EMARKS  SOX1-HUM  Traiskirchen  Co. On 25 September, the former Bundeserziehungsanstalt at Traiskirchen was apparently vacant. Sox1-HUM  Traiskirchen  Co. On 25 September, the former Bundeserziehungsanstalt at Traiskirchen was apparently vacant. Sox1-HUM  Sox1-H	COUNTRY	Austria (Saviet Zone) REPORT
MATE OF CONTENT  MATE O	### PLACE ORTAINED   DATE PREPARED   18 October 1954    ### SOX1-HUM    ### SO	OPIC	Military Information from Moedling, Traiskirchen and Bruck	on the Leitha
Modeling  1. Between 0800 and 0900 on 18 September 1954, personnel entering the former Bundesgeverbeanstalt at Mediling inclined to field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with that mingha, five field drivers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with the mingha, five field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with the mingha, five field and officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with the rest in the mingha five field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with the rest in the mingha five field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with the rest rest the red-bordered green epaulets, and several Soriet weem who were civilian clothes, All peases were controlled by a sentry vieticles observed at the installation included josps were controlled by a sentry vieticles observed at the installation included josps were controlled by a sentry with red-bordered pease were red-bordered black epaulets, and several forter truck business of the second pease of the second pease were red-bordered black epaulets. The former autemobile and alrearst factory on Capitaler Strasse was guarded by a sentry with red-bordered black epaulets. The garages at the installation were empty, Derver school truck which shood in front of the opened garages was being cleaned by two SOX1-HUM solidiers at the second pease of the second pease of the surface of the Syxthesian was apparently wearst.  2. On 25 September, the former Bundesersiehungsanstalt at Traiskirchen was apparently vacant.  3. On 27 September, fresh imprints of track-laying vehicles led from the garages at the cantomment southeast of the Bruck on the leitha River railroad station toward Kaisersteinbruch. Truck left the installation. Three soldiers and jeep lent from the centomment to the camp in the woods, All soldiers observed wore red-bordered black epaulets. No vehicular traffic or soldiers were seen at the camp. A group of 16 soldiers where no fresh insurints of tracks were seen at the camp. A group of 16 soldiers where n	Modding  1. Between 0800 and 0900 on 18 September 1954, personnel entering the former Bundesgewerbeantelt at Modding included two field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epulets with tank insignia, 17 captains, senior lieutenants and lieutenants wearing red-bordered black epulets with tank insignia, 19 captains, senior lieutenants and ileutenants wearing red-bordered black epulets with tank orallery insignia, two endical officers, three officers of the administrative service with red-bordered green epulets, and several Soviet women who were civilian clothes. All passes were controlled by a sentry. Vehicles observed at the installation included jeeps      Wespect Translation   New York   New York		River
Modeling  1. Between 0800 and 0900 on 18 September 1954, personnel entering the former Bundesgewerbeanstalt at Modeling included two field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with thank insignia, five field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with thank insignia, five field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with thank insignia, five field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with thank insignia, five field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with thank or artillery insignia, two modelcal officers, three of the administrative service with red-bordered green epaulets, and several Soviet vomen who were civilian clothes. All passes were controlled by a sentry. Vehicles observed at the installation included jeeps weapon carrier and trucks mumbered B 8-75-81 which was driven by a soldier with black-bordered red epaulets, all drivers observed were red-bordered black epaulets. The former automobile and aircraft factory on Cabrieler Strasse was guarded by a sentry with red-bordered black epaulets. The garages at the installation were empty, Driver school truck which stood in front of the opened garages was being cleaned by two 50X1-HUM soldiers six soldiers utyphange. Sedan which should be sold the sold in front of the opened garages was being cleaned by two 50X1-HUM soldiers six soldiers with artillery insignia left the Hyrtl Orphanage. 50X1-HUM Traiskirchen  2. On 25 September, fresh imprints of track-leying vehicles led from the garages at the cantomment southeast of the Bruck on the Leitha River railroad station toward Kaissrsteinbruch, Truck left the installation. Three soldiers and jeep level from the cantomment to the camp in the woods. All soldiers observed wore red-bordered black epaulets, No vehicular traffic or soldiers were seen at the camp. A group of 16 soldiers did exceavation work on the tank firing rance two 50X1-HUM kilometers southwest of the railroad station work on the tank firing rance two 50X1-HUM kilometers southwest of t	ATE OBTAINED  DATE PREPARED  18 October 1954  EFFRENCES  AGES  ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)  EMARKS  50X1-HUM  50X1-HUM  50X1-HUM  1. Between 0800 and 0900 on 18 September 1954, personnel entering the former Bundes-gewerbeantalt at Needling included two field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epulets with tank insigning, 17 captains, senior lieutenants and lieutenants wearing red-bordered black epulets with tank cartillery insignic, two needled brack epulets with tank or artillery insignic, two needled brack epulets with tank or artillery insignic, two needled brack epulets with tank or artillery insignic, two needled brack epulets with tank or artillery insignic, two needled brack epulets, and several Soviet women who were civilian clothes. All passes were controlled by a sentry. Vehicles observed at the installation included jeeps      weeps on carrier	VALUATION_	PLACE OBTAINED	50V1 HIIM
EFERENCES  2 ENCLOSURES (No. a Type)  50X1-HUM  1. Between 0800 and 0900 on 18 September 1954, personnel entering the former Bundes- geworbeanstalt at Moedling included two field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, five field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank or artillery insignia, two medical officers, three officers of the administrative service with red-bordered green epaulets, and several Soviet women who were civilian clothes. All passes were controlled by a sentry. Vehicles observed at the installation included jeeps    weapon carrier    Exceptive another truck   numbered B 8-75-81 which was driven by a soldier with black-bordered equalets, all drivers observed wore red-bordered black epaulets. The former automobile and aircraft factory on Gurleto Strasse was guarded by a sentry with red-bordered black epaulets. The garges at the installation were empty. Driver school truck   which stood in front of the opened garges was being cleaned by two 50X1-HUM soldiers. Six soldiers with red-bordered black and black-bordered red epaulets were seen at the thyful Orphange. Sedam   were parked in front of the installation. Truck    driven by a soldier wearing red- bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia left the Hyrtl Orphange. 1  2. On 25 September, the former Bundesersiehungsanstalt at Traiskirchen was apparently vacant. 2  Bruck on the Leithe River  3. On 27 September, fresh imprints of track-laying vehicles led from the garages at the cantomment southeast of the Pruck on the Leitha River railroad station toward Kaisersteinbruch, Truck    Left the installation. Three soldiers and jeep   went from the cantomment to the camp in the woods. All soldiers observed wore red-bordered black epaulets. No vehicular traffic or soldiers were seen at the camp, A group of 16 soldiers add execution work on the tank firine range at the camp, A group of 16 soldiers and seeps.	Moddling   SOX1-HUM	DATE OF CON	NTENT	30X1-110101
Mocaling  1. Between 0800 and 0900 on 18 September 1954, personnel entering the former Bundesgewerbeanstelt at Mocaling included two field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, if we field grade officers wearing entillery insignia, if ye options, sentor lieutenants and lieutenants wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank or artillery insignia, two medical officers, three officers of the administrative service with red-bordered green epaulets, and several Soviet women who were civilian clothes. All passes were controlled by a sentry. Vehicles observed at the installation included jeps    Exceptive another truck   December 1954, personnel attucks	Mosdling  1. Between 0300 and 0900 on 18 September 1954, personnel entering the former Bundesgewerbeanstalt at Mosdling included two field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, five field grade officers wearing artillery insignia, 17 captains, sentor lieutenants and lieutenants wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank or artillery insignia, two medical officers, three officers of the administrative service with red-bordered green epaulets, and serveral Soviet women who were civilian clothes. All passes were controlled by a sentry. Vehicles observed at the installation included jeeps    November   Novembe	ATE OBTAINE	EDDATE PREPARED18 October 1	954
Mosdling  1. Between 0800 and 0900 on 18 September 1954, personnel entering the former Bundesgeworbeanstelt at Mosdling included two field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epsulets with tank insignia, five field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epsulets with tank or artillery insignia, two medical officers, two entired officers of the administrative service with red-bordered green epsulets, and several Soviet women who were civilian clothes. All passes were controlled by a sentry. Vehicles observed at the installation included jeeps    weapon carrier    Receptor another truck numbered B 8-75-81 which was driven by a soldier with black-bordered red epsulets, all drivers observed were red-bordered black epsulets. The former autemobile and aircraft factory on Cabrielor Strasses was guarded by a sentry with red-bordered black epsulets. The garages at the installation were empty. Driver school truck which stood in front of the opened garages was being cleaned by two 50X1-HUM soldiers. Six soldiers with red-bordered black and black-bordered epsulets were seen at the Hyrtl Orphanage, Schm   were parked in front of the installation. Truck   driven by a soldier wering red-bordered black epsulets with artillery insignia left the Hyrtl Orphanage. 1 50X1-HUM  Traiskirchen  2. On 25 September, the former Bundeserziehungsanstalt at Traiskirchen was apparently vacant. 2   Pruck on the Leitha River   SoX1-HUM    Traiskirchen   Pruck on the Leitha River   SoX1-HUM   Red cantomment to the camp in the woods. All soldiers observed were read-bordered black epsulets. No vehicular traffic or soldiers and jeep   went from the cantomment to the camp in the woods. All soldiers observed were read-bordered black epsulets. No vehicular traffic or soldiers were seen at the camp. A group of 16 soldiers die excevation work on the tank firing range tuck XIA-HUM kilometers southwest of the real-road station. Two trucks stood at the installation where no fresh importator from the woods. All soldiers observed were read-bordered	Moralling  1. Between 0800 and 0900 on 18 September 1954, personnel entering the former Bundesgewerbeanstalt at Moedling included two field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, five field grade officers wearing ertillery insignia, 17 captains, senior lieutenants and lieutenants wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank or artillery insignia, two medical officers, three officers of the administrative service with red-bordered green epaulets, and several Soviet women who were civilian clothes. All passes were controlled by a sentry. Vehicles observed at the installation included jeeps    weapon carrier    Exceptir another truck   Exceptir another truck   mumbered B 8-75-81 which was driven by a soldier with black-bordered red epaulets, all drivers observed wore red-bordered black epaulets. The former automobile and aircraft factory on Cabrielor Strass was guarded by a sentry with red-bordered black epaulets. The grages at the installation were empty. Driver school truck   which stood in front of the opened garages was being cleaned by two 50X1-HUM soldiers. Six soldiers with red-bordered black and black-bordered red epaulets were seen at the Hyrtl Orphanage, Sedand in front of the installation. Truck   driven by a soldier wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia left the Hyrtl Orphanage. 50X1-HUM   Traiskirchen   Truck   driven by a soldier wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia left the Hyrtl Orphanage. 50X1-HUM   Traiskirchen   Truck   left the installation. Three soldiers and jeep   went from the cantonment to the camp in the woods. All soldiers observed were red-bordered black epaulets. No whichlular traffic or soldiers were sen at the camp. A group of 16 soldiers did excavation work on the tank firing rame two50X1-HUM kilometers southwest of the realroad station. For trucks stood at the installation where no fresh imprints of tracks were seen.	EFERENCES.		The Company of the Co
Modelling  1. Between 0800 and 0900 on 18 September 1954, personnel entering the former Bundes-goverbeanstelt at Modelling included two field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epsulets with tank insignia, five field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epsulets with tank or artillery insignia, two medical officers, two endical officers of the administrative service with red-bordered green epsulets, and several Soviet women who were civilian clothes. All passes were controlled by a sentry. Vehicles observed at the installation included jeeps    weapon carrier    Exceptit another truck numbered B 8-75-81 which was driven by a soldier with black-bordered red epsulets, all drivers observed were red-bordered black epsulets. The former autemobile and aircraft factory on Cabrielor Strasses was guarded by a sentry with red-bordered black epsulets. The garages at the installation were empty. Driver school truck which stood in front of the opened garages was being cleaned by two 50X1-HUM soldiers. Six soldiers with red-bordered black and black-bordered epsulets were seen at the Hyrtl Orphanage, Sedan in front of the installation. Truck driven by a soldier wering red-bordered black epsulets with artillery insignia left the Hyrtl Orphanage. 1 50X1-HUM Traiskirchen  2. On 25 September, the former Bundeserziehungsanstalt at Traiskirchen was apparently vacant. 2 Pruck on the Laiths River  50X1-HUM Traiskirchen 1 Fruck	Moralling  1. Between 0800 and 0900 on 18 September 1954, personnel entering the former Bundesgewerbeanstalt at Moedling included two field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, five field grade officers wearing ertillery insignia, 17 captains, senior lieutenants and lieutenants wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank or artillery insignia, two medical officers, three officers of the administrative service with red-bordered green epaulets, and several Soviet women who were civilian clothes. All passes were controlled by a sentry. Vehicles observed at the installation included jeeps    weapon carrier    Exceptir another truck   Exceptir another truck   mumbered B 8-75-81 which was driven by a soldier with black-bordered red epaulets, all drivers observed wore red-bordered black epaulets. The former automobile and aircraft factory on Cabrielor Strass was guarded by a sentry with red-bordered black epaulets. The grages at the installation were empty. Driver school truck   which stood in front of the opened garages was being cleaned by two 50X1-HUM soldiers. Six soldiers with red-bordered black and black-bordered red epaulets were seen at the Hyrtl Orphanage, Sedand in front of the installation. Truck   driven by a soldier wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia left the Hyrtl Orphanage. 50X1-HUM   Traiskirchen   Truck   driven by a soldier wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia left the Hyrtl Orphanage. 50X1-HUM   Traiskirchen   Truck   left the installation. Three soldiers and jeep   went from the cantonment to the camp in the woods. All soldiers observed were red-bordered black epaulets. No whichlular traffic or soldiers were sen at the camp. A group of 16 soldiers did excavation work on the tank firing rame two50X1-HUM kilometers southwest of the realroad station. For trucks stood at the installation where no fresh imprints of tracks were seen.	AGES	ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)
Moselling  1. Between 0800 and 0900 on 18 September 1954, personnel entering the former Bundes-gewerbeanstelt at Mocaling included two field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, five field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank or artillery insignia, two medical officers, three officers of the administrative service with red-bordered green epaulets, and several Soviet women who were civilian clothes. All passes were controlled by a sentry. Vehicles observed at the installation included jeeps	Moedling  1. Between 0800 and 0900 on 18 September 1954, personnel entering the former Bundes-gewerbeanstelt at Moedling included two field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, five field grade officers wearing ertillery insignia, 17 captains, senior lieutenants and lieutenants wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank or artillery insignia, two medical officers, three officers of the administrative service with red-bordered green epaulets, and severel Soviet women who wore civilian clothes. All passes were controlled by a sentry. Vehicles observed at the installation included jeeps
Moselling  1. Between 0800 and 0900 on 18 September 1954, personnel entering the former Bundesgewerbeanstelt at Moselling included two field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, five field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank or artillery insignia, two medical officers, three officers of the administrative service with red-bordered green epaulets, and several Soviet women who were civilian clothes. All passes were controlled by a sentry. Vehicles observed at the installation included jeeps	Moedling  1. Between 0800 and 0900 on 18 September 1954, personnel entering the former Bundes-gewerbeanstelt at Moedling included two field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, five field grade officers wearing ertillery insignia, 17 captains, senior lieutenants and lieutenants wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank or artillery insignia, two medical officers, three officers of the administrative service with red-bordered green epaulets, and severel Soviet women who wore civilian clothes. All passes were controlled by a sentry. Vehicles observed at the installation included jeeps
Moselling  1. Between 0800 and 0900 on 18 September 1954, personnel entering the former Bundesgewerbeanstelt at Moselling included two field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, five field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank or artillery insignia, two medical officers, three officers of the administrative service with red-bordered green epaulets, and several Soviet women who were civilian clothes. All passes were controlled by a sentry. Vehicles observed at the installation included jeeps	Moedling  1. Between 0800 and 0900 on 18 September 1954, personnel entering the former Bundes-gewerbeanstelt at Moedling included two field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, five field grade officers wearing ertillery insignia, 17 captains, senior lieutenants and lieutenants wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank or artillery insignia, two medical officers, three officers of the administrative service with red-bordered green epaulets, and severel Soviet women who wore civilian clothes. All passes were controlled by a sentry. Vehicles observed at the installation included jeeps
1. Between 0800 and 0900 on 18 September 1954, personnel entering the former Bundesgewerbeanstelt at Moedling included two field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, five field grade officers wearing ertillery insignia, 17 captains, senior lieutemants and lieutemants wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank or artillery insignia, two medical officers, three officers of the administrative service with red-bordered green epaulets, and several Soviet women who wore civilian clothes. All passes were controlled by a sentry. Vehicles observed at the installation included jeeps    weapon carrier	1. Between 0800 and 0900 on 18 September 1954, personnel entering the former Bundes- gewerbeanstelt at Moedling included two field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, five field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank or artillery insignia, two medical officers, three officers of the administrative service with red-bordered green epaulets, and several Soviet women who wore civilian clothes. All passes were controlled by a sentry. Vehicles observed at the installation included jeeps    weapon carrier			50X1-HUM
1. Between 0800 and 0900 on 18 September 1954, personnel entering the former Bundesgewerbeanstelt at Moedling included two field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, five field grade officers wearing ertillery insignia, 17 captains, senior lieutemants and lieutemants wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank or artillery insignia, two medical officers, three officers of the administrative service with red-bordered green epaulets, and several Soviet women who wore civilian clothes. All passes were controlled by a sentry. Vehicles observed at the installation included jeeps    weapon carrier	1. Between 0800 and 0900 on 18 September 1954, personnel entering the former Bundes- gewerbeanstelt at Moedling included two field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, five field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank or artillery insignia, two medical officers, three officers of the administrative service with red-bordered green epaulets, and several Soviet women who wore civilian clothes. All passes were controlled by a sentry. Vehicles observed at the installation included jeeps    weapon carrier			·
1. Between 0800 and 0900 on 18 September 1954, personnel entering the former Bundesgewerbeanstelt at Moedling included two field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, five field grade officers wearing artillery insignia, 17 captains, senior lieutemants and lieutemants wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank or artillery insignia, two medical officers, three officers of the administrative service with red-bordered green epaulets, and several Soviet women who wore civilian clothes. All passes were controlled by a sentry. Vehicles observed at the installation included jeeps    weapon carrier	1. Between 0800 and 0900 on 18 September 1954, personnel entering the former Bundes- gewerbeanstelt at Moedling included two field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, five field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank or artillery insignia, two medical officers, three officers of the administrative service with red-bordered green epaulets, and several Soviet women who wore civilian clothes. All passes were controlled by a sentry. Vehicles observed at the installation included jeeps    weapon carrier
1. Between 0800 and 0900 on 18 September 1954, personnel entering the former Bundes- gewerbeanstelt at Moedling included two field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, five field grade officers wearing artillery insignia, 17 captains, senior lieutenants and lieutenants wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank or artillery insignia, two medical officers, three officers of the administrative service with red-bordered green epaulets, and several Soviet women who wore civilian clothes. All passes were controlled by a sentry. Vehicles observed at the installation included jeeps	1. Between 0800 and 0900 on 18 September 1954, personnel entering the former Bundes- gewerbeanstelt at Moddling included two field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, five field grade officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank or artillery insignia, two medical officers, three officers of the administrative service with red-bordered green epaulets, and several Soviet women who wore civilian clothes. All passes were controlled by a sentry. Vehicles observed at the installation included jeeps    weapon carrier	Mon	ndliva	50X1-HUM
numbered B 8-75-81 which was driven by a soldier with black-bordered red epaulets, all drivers observed wore red-bordered black epaulets. The former automobile and aircraft factory on Gabrieler Strasse was guarded by a sentry with red-bordered black epaulets. The garages at the installation were empty. Driver school truck which stood in front of the opened garages was being cleaned by two 50X1-HUM soldiers. Six soldiers with red-bordered black and black-bordered red epaulets were seen at the Hyrtl Orphanage. Sedan were parked in front of the installation. Truck driven by a soldier wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia left the Hyrtl Orphanage. 50X1-HUM  Traiskirchen  2. On 25 September, the former Bundeserziehungsanstalt at Traiskirchen was apparently vacant. 50X1-HUM  Bruck on the Leitha River 50X1-HUM  3. On 27 September, fresh imprints of track-laying vehicles led from the garages at the cantonment southeast of the Bruck on the Leitha River railroad station toward Kaisersteinbruch. Truck left the installation. Three soldiers and jeep went from the cantonment to the camp in the woods. All soldiers observed wore red-bordered black epaulets. No vehicular traffic or soldiers were seen at the camp. A group of 16 soldiers did excavation work on the tank firing range two50X1-HUM kilometers southwest of the railroad station. Two trucks stood at the installation where no fresh imprints of tracks were seen.	numbered B 8-75-81 which was driven by a soldier with black-bordered red epaulets, all drivers observed wore red-bordered black epaulets. The former automobile and aircraft factory on Cabrielor Strasse was guarded by a sentry with red-bordered black epaulets. The garages at the installation were empty. Driver school truck which stood in front of the opened garages was being cleaned by two 50X1-HUM soldiers. Six soldiers with red-bordered black and black-bordered red epaulets were seen at the Hyrtl Orphanage. Sedan were parked in front of the installation. Truck driven by a soldier wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia left the Hyrtl Orphanage. SoX1-HUM Traiskirchen  2. On 25 September, the former Bundeserziehungsanstalt at Traiskirchen was apparently vacant. SoX1-HUM Bruck on the Leitha River  50X1-HUM  3. On 27 September, fresh imprints of track-laying vehicles led from the garages at the cantonment southeast of the Bruck on the Leitha River railroad station toward Kaisersteinbruch. Truck left the installation. Three soldiers and jeep went from the cantonment to the camp in the woods. All soldiers observed wore red-bordered black epaulets. No vehicular traffic or soldiers were seen at the camp. A group of 16 soldiers did excavation work on the tank firing range two50X1-HUM kilometers southwest of the railroad station. Two trucks stood at the installation where no fresh imprints of tracks were seen.	wom	men who wore civilian clothes. All passes were controlled by a se served at the installation included jeeps
Traiskirchen  2. On 25 September, the former Bundeserziehungsanstalt at Traiskirchen was apparently vacant.  2. On 25 September, the former Bundeserziehungsanstalt at Traiskirchen was apparently vacant.  3. On 27 September, fresh imprints of track-laying vehicles led from the garages at the cantonment southeast of the Bruck on the Leitha River railroad station toward Kaisersteinbruch. Truck left the installation. Three soldiers and jeep went from the cantonment to the camp in the woods. All soldiers observed wore red-bordered black epaulets. No vehicular traffic or soldiers were seen at the camp. A group of 16 soldiers did excavation work on the tank firing range two50X1-HUM kilometers southwest of the railroad station. Two trucks stood at the installation where no fresh imprints of tracks were seen.	Traiskirchen  2. On 25 September, the former Bundeserziehungsanstalt at Traiskirchen was apparently vacant.  Bruck on the Leitha River  50X1-HUM  3. On 27 September, fresh imprints of track-leying vehicles led from the garages at the cantonment southeast of the Bruck on the Leitha River railroad station toward Kaisersteinbruch. Truck left the installation. Three soldiers and jeep went from the cantonment to the camp in the woods. All soldiers observed wore red-bordered black epaulets. No vehicular traffic or soldiers were seen at the camp. A group of 16 soldiers did excavation work on the tank firing range two50X1-HUM kilometers southwest of the railroad station. Two trucks stood at the installation where no fresh imprints of tracks were seen.	all air bla sol wer in	Exceptive mbered B 8-75-81 which was driven by a soldier with black-bordered drivers observed wore red-bordered black epaulets. The former a recraft factory on Gabrieler Strasse was guarded by a sentry with ack epaulets. The garages at the installation were empty. Driver which stood in front of the opened garages was being cleat ddiers. Six soldiers with red-bordered black and black-bordered r re seen at the Hyrtl Orphanage. Sedan front of the installation. Truck driven by a soldier w	d red epaulets, utomobile and red-bordered school truck ned by two 50X1-HUM ed epaulets were parked earing red-
2. On 25 September, the former Bundeserziehungsanstalt at Traiskirchen was apparently vacant. <sup>2</sup> Bruck on the Leitha River  50X1-HUM  3. On 27 September, fresh imprints of track-laying vehicles led from the garages at the cantonment southeast of the Bruck on the Leitha River railroad station toward Kaisersteinbruch. Truck    left the installation. Three soldiers and jeep     went from the cantonment to the camp in the woods. All soldiers observed wore red-bordered black epaulets. No vehicular traffic or soldiers were seen at the camp. A group of 16 soldiers did excavation work on the tank firing range two50X1-HUM kilometers southwest of the railroad station. Two trucks stood at the installation where no fresh imprints of tracks were seen.	2. On 25 September, the former Bundeserziehungsanstalt at Traiskirchen was apparently vacant. <sup>2</sup> Bruck on the Leitha River  3. On 27 September, fresh imprints of track-leying vehicles led from the garages at the cantonment southeast of the Bruck on the Leitha River railroad station toward Kaisersteinbruch. Truck    Left the installation. Three soldiers and jeep	_		anage • 50X1-HUM
Bruck on the Leitha River  3. On 27 September, fresh imprints of track-laying vehicles led from the garages at the cantonment southeast of the Bruck on the Leitha River railroad station toward Kaisersteinbruch. Truck    left the installation. Three soldiers and jeep     went from the cantonment to the camp in the woods. All soldiers observed wore red-bordered black epaulets. No vehicular traffic or soldiers were seen at the camp. A group of 16 soldiers did excavation work on the tank firing range two50X1-HUM kilometers southwest of the railroad station. Two trucks stood at the installation where no fresh imprints of tracks were seen.	Bruck on the Leitha River  3. On 27 September, fresh imprints of track-laying vehicles led from the garages at the cantonment southeast of the Bruck on the Leitha River railroad station toward Kaisersteinbruch. Truck    left the installation. Three soldiers and jeep   went from the cantonment to the camp in the woods. All soldiers observed wore red-bordered black epaulets. No vehicular traffic or soldiers were seen at the camp. A group of 16 soldiers did excavation work on the tank firing range two50X1-HUM kilometers southwest of the railroad station. Two trucks stood at the installation where no fresh imprints of tracks were seen.	•
3. On 27 September, fresh imprints of track-laying vehicles led from the garages at the cantonment southeast of the Bruck on the Leitha River railroad station toward Kaisersteinbruch. Truck    left the installation. Three soldiers and jeep   went from the cantonment to the camp in the woods. All soldiers observed wore red-bordered black epaulets. No vehicular traffic or soldiers were seen at the camp. A group of 16 soldiers did excavation work on the tank firing range two 50X1-HUM kilometers southwest of the railroad station. Two trucks stood at the installation where no fresh imprints of tracks were seen.	3. On 27 September, fresh imprints of track-laying vehicles led from the garages at the cantonment southeast of the Bruck on the Leitha River railroad station toward Kaisersteinbruch. Truck left the installation. Three soldiers and jeep went from the cantonment to the camp in the woods. All soldiers observed wore red-bordered black epaulets. No vehicular traffic or soldiers were seen at the camp. A group of 16 soldiers did excavation work on the tank firing range two50X1-HUM kilometers southwest of the railroad station. Two trucks stood at the installation where no fresh imprints of tracks were seen.  50X1-HU			was apparently the cantonment southeast of the Bruck on the Leitha River railroad station toward Kaisersteinbruch. Truck left the installation. Three soldiers and jeep went from the cantonment to the camp in the woods. All soldiers observed wore red-bordered black epaulets. No vehicular traffic or soldiers were seen at the camp. A group of 16 soldiers did excavation work on the tank firing range two50X1-HUM kilometers southwest of the railroad station. Two trucks stood at the installation where no fresh imprints of tracks were seen.	the cantonment southeast of the Bruck on the Leitha River railroad station toward Kaisersteinbruch. Truck left the installation. Three soldiers and jeep went from the cantonment to the camp in the woods. All soldiers observed wore red-bordered black epaulets. No vehicular traffic or soldiers were seen at the camp. A group of 16 soldiers did excavation work on the tank firing range two50X1-HUM kilometers southwest of the railroad station. Two trucks stood at the installation where no fresh imprints of tracks were seen.  50X1-HU	Bru	ick on the Leitha River	50Y1 HIIM
50X1-HU	50X1-HU	the Kai Wor		30X1-110W
	CI ASSIFICATION SECRET	kil	went from the cantonment to the camp in the woods. All so re red-bordered black epaulets. No vehicular traffic or soldiers up. A group of 16 soldiers did excavation work on the tank firing lometers southwest of the railroad station. Two trucks	ne garages at station toward lers and jeep ldiers observed were seen at the range two 50X1-HUM

Sanitized Copy Approved for Release 2010/08/26 : CIA-RDP80-00810A005300320016-4 50X1-HUM

	SECRET
	± 2 €
( -)	On 13 September, a troop train of 20 cars with about 20-year old soldiers was dispatched from Bruck on the Leitha River to Goepfr. The soldiers were escorted by officers who wore red-bordered blampaulets with artillery insignia.	$ & m
	Comment
	the observation that the on Cabrieler Strasse were empty confirms that the reconnaissance battalion of the 13th Cds Mech Div, which is believed to be quarthere, was absent from the post. The battalion possibly moved to Doellersheim troop training grounds.	tered
· p_	Comment. The 45th Gds Mech Regt which is stationed at Trainmoved to the Doellersheim troop training grounds.	iskirchen 50X1-HUM
	Comment. The troop train carried replacements from the USC recruits probably were carried to their units at the Doellersheir	R. The training grounds.	50X1-HUN
	Morry
	SECRET,	50X1-HUM